WALWORTH'S BETROTHED.—A very sad feature of the Walworth case—still fresh in the minds of the public—has come to our knowledge and is well authenticated.
It appears that a few years ago Frank Walworth formed a very strong attachment for the youngest daughter of a distinguished Southern family who were at that time visiting Saratoga. The young lady reciprocated, but her parents, in view of her age, discouraged the intimacy which had arisen between her and young Walworth. Subsequently the family went abroad, and the young girl was placed at one of the finest and most respected educational institutions in Europe. A clandestine correspondence was arranged and carried on between the young lovers, and about eight months ago they became engaged through the medium of letters. Time rolled on, and suddenly the community was horrified at the news Walworth had shot and killed the young lady to whom Frank was engaged. No longer a girl, but a beautiful and finely educated young woman, arrived with her family in the Emerald steamer.
When she heard the news she fainted, and for several hours was unconscious.
She has never recovered since, and is today a sad, listless, heart-broken woman.
We believe she has not seen the young man who shot her. Time rolled on, and
the news Walworth had shot and killed

PROPOSED EXPOSITION AT VALPARAISO.
The exposition which has reached South America, arrangements having been made to hold an International Exhibition at Valparaiso, Chile, about a year before the United States Centennial Commemoration at Philadelphia. Although Chile may not have much to exhibit of her own products, except wheat, flour and her rich minerals, the Exposition cannot fail to exercise a healthy stimulus upon the Spanish-American Republics. A year ago California contributed largely to Chilean prosperity. Between 1846 and 1855 this State drew its supplies of iron, steel, copper, and other minerals, largely from Chile, that Republic commenced exporting wheat and flour to Australia, the Cape of Good Hope and Europe, and this trade continues. There is still, however, an important American trade at Valparaiso, which will largely increase when the inter-oceanic canal becomes an accomplished fact. Chile is perhaps the most orderly and best civilized of all the South American Republics. She led the van in the introduction of railroads, and Chile has completed a trans-Andine telegraph from Buenos Ayres and Montevideo to Valparaiso, and the Republic is now engaged on a project for a transcontinental railroad to unite Santiago with Buenos Ayres. It may be expected that the Pacific States and Territories will be well represented at the forthcoming Valparaiso Exposition.

BENEFIT OF LAUGHTER.—Probably there is not the remotest corner or little nook of the human body that is not influenced by the action of the mind. The body that does not feel the mind's will from the convulsions of hearty laughter.
The blood moves more lively—probably is chemically, electric or vital condition is distinctly modified—it conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body as it visits them, and on that particular journey when we are laughing, from what it does at other times. And so, we doubt not, a good laugh may lengthen our lives, conveying a distinct stimulus to the vital forces. And the time may come when physicians, attending more closely on the mind, will be able to present to the innumerable subtle influences which the soul exerts upon its tenement of clay, shall prescribe to a torpid patient "so many peals of laughter" to be undergone at such and such a time, "just as they now do that for the obscurely prescribed, a will or an electric or galvanic shock, and shall study the best and most effective method of producing the required effect in each patient."—Herald of Health.

A WOMAN WHO WANTED TO BE A LAW-YER.—At Gadsden, Alabama, last week, during the session of the Chancery Court, Miss N. C. Stewart applied for a license to practice law. She was examined as to her qualifications by Judge Martin, Allen, Cannell, Foster, Captain Cunningham, and J. H. Disque, who reported that she was incompetent. Then came the trump of war. She got angry and said that it was nothing more than she expected; accused the Court and Bar of robbery, and called them a band of robbers. The Chancellor ordered the Sheriff to put her out of the Court-room, for contempt of Court, and she replied that she had the right to speak. The Sheriff started to take her out, but she declined to be escorted. The Chancellor then allowed her to remain, if she would keep quiet; otherwise, he would have her put in jail. She subsided.

USING THE MONEY.—Horace Greeley's life was insured, for most of the years of his life, for $150,000 by the Tribune Association. The company are now putting this money in the new publication building which they have commenced to erect.

HARD PUNISH.—A steamer bound for Philadelphia recently, run short of coal on the voyage and had to burn thirty-five thousand dollars' worth of Peruvian bark to get to port.
